

Briefing to RCMP and OPP by Chief Sloly

Teams

2022-01-31 @ 1300

PS

- Stage described by Chief
- Invited Commissioners to be part of next media
- Brief history transition across country
- Planned for a sprint
- Through planning try to plan and get large number of trucks to leave at the end of the weekend
- We knew there was a well-funded commitment
- Negotiations
 - Our PLT hit it hard all week starting last Monday
 - PLT tried hard and were close to getting them off the Hill by Sunday night
 - This changed late Sunday to they are staying
 - Changed to multi day, week, month occupation
 - Commitment is there, and they are
 - POU teams have been trying to come to a plan to remove them
 - 100s of officers
 - Massive risks
 - Count on 1000s of trucks
- We have come really close to major blow-ups but we've kept the lid on it for now
- The demonstration was a success
 - No deaths
 - No injuries
 - Nothing on fire
 - No vandalism
 - We didn't go hard tac
- 4 ops
 - Ongoing public order management
 - Planning for a longer-term occupation
 - Police-led intervention to arrest to bring to an end
 - Seek an injunction at all levels because of all 3 levels of land involved
 - All costly, risky, resource intense, requires increase in communications
- Looking for
 - Resources
 - Communications, what can we say and when
 - Do you want to participate at the 1500

BL

- Excellent job by team, but its not done
- Concern, if injunction, now its an official movement to another stage
- This will involve the whole country
- Anything official will spark a national response
- Leaning towards measured approach
 - Hi, move or you are towed
 - Have tow truck sitting there
 - Not "official" order
- 1500 full media?
 - Yes
 - A lot of briefing to do and this is not enough time

TC

- Concur with BL, tremendous job
- Highlighted excellent job, no injuries or damage to infrastructure
- This is now an occupation
- Several factures, $ is key
- BL is spot on, must remain cautious
 - This is local
 - Careful not to become National or International
- Complete support of option B which is inclusive of option A
- Try to limit the length of the occupation
- Concern with the injunction
 - You would have a legal obligation to enact it
 - Continue to build for a junction
 - Mass arrests
 -]removal of
- 1500 meeting, would stand shoulder to shoulder
 - Concern, may give them more of a presence then needed a this time
 - Maybe a Supt from the region
 - Don't give access to the leaders of 3 orgs

PS

- Agree with the point on rep

JS

- Connected with all orgs present today
- Comms coordination with them
- Moving it to 1530

- Hi level sitrep
- Thank officers
- City & Social services
- Long-term impact

BL

- Need to consider the other treading narratives
 - E.g. If this was BLM would policing be so hands off?
- We think of the protest, politicians think of the impact on the people
- De-escalation, negotiation, up to legal for injunction but better not to have it
- Measured approach

SB

- Thanks to RCMP
- Excellent intel from OPP

TF

- Prelim requests
 - Traffic officers, large rigs on small roads, need egress plan
 - ERT/POU losing 4, 2 more coming
 - Hearing propel booking hotels for this weekend
 - Looking for OPP assistance to sustain negotiations
 - You are both key services with experience in protracted events
 - Asked RMCP and OPP for people to assist and consult

TC

- We will facilitate all the requests being made
- Embed in command structure
- Rely on the exp of all 3 agencies
- Strong group looking for conflict and willing to be martyrs
 - Key message, report on the criminal matters
 - How we're are dealing with them
 - Message that this is not the law abiding group
 - The tone and tempo has changes
 - Discreet messaging
- Probably same pressures as the Province, locally
 - Hospitals

- Other infrastructure – clinics
- Pressures

BL

- Why did negotiations fall through?

TF

- They were able to get some concessions
- Vehicles move to side
- Some to leave
- A group from the West not happy
- [REDACTED]
- SJAM opened 1 lane WB and 2 lanes EB
- Still good will and still working on it
- Convoy Captains are at the table and listening

BL

- Good that they are talking
- Talking only goes so far

SB

- Intel that this will be ebb and flow over the weekends

XX @ NCRCC

- Liaison has done an excellent job
- RCMP, the quicker the ask, the better position they are in responding
- Injunction, we will continue supporting
- This one has gone very well
- Don't give it a lot of oxygen, let it wind down and go away

- 1530
 - Thank officers
 - Distinguish what happened on weekend from what we see now
 - Traffic issues
 - Some of the reasons why we took certain action,
 - Circumstances on front line
 - We are going to address Centertown residents
